K-2 book boxes

Want to enhance your classroom’s reading program?

Contact the Center for Teaching and Learning (CTL) at IUPUC! We have nearly 50 book boxes appropriate for the K-2 classroom, with works that have been specially selected to help children to be successful readers. Titles include:

— Take A Bite
— The Fox and the Crow
— Which is Heavier?
— The Seed
— Horrible Harry and the Green Slime
— A Lucky Day for Little Dinosaur
— The Barrel of Gold
— Wild Wicked Winifred and the Pirates

The advantages for teachers and students include:

- A variety of publications
- Materials can be checked out for a nine-week grading period
- Enhanced reading resources
- Levels are listed on the book cover
- List of all titles included in the box, with a quick level guide of each book
- Great reading center activity
- Great for advanced and struggling readers

How can you check them out?

Contact Rodney Burton via e-mail at rodburto@iupuc.edu or by calling 812.314.8755. We will send the boxes via Bartholomew Consolidated School Corporation (BCSC) mail to your attention at your school. When finished, simply return materials to CTL through BCSC mail. It’s quick and easy!
