IUPUC Faculty Awards Protocol

The Indiana University-Purdue University-Columbus (IUPUC) Faculty Awards serve as encouragement to faculty, including librarians, to continue outstanding work. The awards recognize past achievement while simultaneously pointing to future aspirations. The awards are designed to honor faculty who epitomize the highest levels of excellence in the pursuit of IUPUC’s mission. Ideally, each award will go to a candidate whose contributions are widely recognized both locally on campus and nationally.

Faculty Awards Committee

The Faculty Awards Committee is an ad hoc committee comprised of a representative from each academic division plus the previous year’s Jacqueline D. Franz Outstanding Part-time Faculty Teaching Award recipient.

The Vice Chancellor and Dean will appoint the committee members and alternates from each academic division at the beginning of the academic year, and charge one of the committee members to serve as the Faculty Awards Committee chair.

- The recipients of the previous year’s IUPUC full-time faculty awards and Indiana University Trustees Teaching Awards will represent their respective Divisions.

- In the event that there was no award winner from a particular Division the previous year, the Vice Chancellor and Dean will appoint a representative from that Division.

- In the event that there were two or more award winners from a particular Division, the Vice Chancellor and Dean will select one of the winners to represent the Division on the Faculty Awards Committee.

- Awards Committee members are not eligible for consideration for the current year’s award if they received it in the previous year but may be eligible for other awards. If a committee member is eligible and wishes to be considered for an award, he or she will recuse him or herself from participating in any discussion related to that award. In this event, the alternate member will represent that Division in the discussion.

Dossier Submission Process

As a part of the regular annual review process, each Division’s primary peer review committee, or similar body, will nominate up to two members for each award from their faculty.

- Copies of the nominated Faculty Annual Reports for these individuals, excluding supervisor assessments and self-analysis notes, will be made available to the Faculty Awards Committee for review.
• The primary peer review committee, or similar body, will include a short (300 words or less) rationale for the nomination of each individual based upon their respective Division’s criteria for excellence.

• Upon receiving these nominations the Faculty Awards Committee chair will notify the nominees, and confirm that each nominee wishes to be considered for the award(s).

• Nominees have the option of submitting supplemental information (500 words or less) supporting their case, if desired.

Selection Period

In addition to the IUPUC Faculty Awards, the Faculty Awards Committee will also be responsible for the selection of the recipients of the Indiana University Trustees Teaching Awards.

• If no faculty member is nominated for a particular award, or if no faculty meets the requirements for a particular award, then the award in question will not be given for that year.
  o Names of the award winners will be submitted by the Faculty Awards Committee chair to the Vice Chancellor and Dean by a date set annually by the Office of the Vice Chancellor and Dean to match the earliest deadline as required by the external awards, such as the IU Trustee’s Award.

  o This date will be posted on the Faculty Annual Reviews webpage [http://www.iupuc.edu/personneladministration/reviews/faculty].

Award Review:

The IUPUC Faculty Affairs Committee will review the awards process each year.

Approved by Faculty Senate 29 January 2010
Procedures:

The Office of the Vice Chancellor and Dean will be responsible for:

- Appointing the members and alternates of the IUPUC Faculty Awards committee and charging one of the committee members to serve as the Faculty Awards Committee Chair at the beginning of each academic year.

- Tracking and reporting the names of eligible faculty members for each award to the Division heads.

- Setting the dates for the submission of the nominations to the Office of the Vice Chancellor and Dean to match the earliest deadline required by external awards such as the IU Trustee’s Award.

- Posting all relevant dates in the review and nomination process on the Faculty Annual Reviews webpage [http://www.iupuc.edu/personneladministration/reviews/faculty].

- Providing all documents regarding the nominees (FARs, rationale for nomination, supplemental information) to the Faculty Awards Committee Chair.

The Chair of the Faculty Awards Committee will be responsible for:

- Notifying nominees of their nomination and confirming their acceptance of the nomination.

- Calling and presiding over committee meetings.

- Distributing all documents regarding the nominees (FARs, rationale for nomination, supplemental information) to the members of the Faculty Awards Committee.

- Notifying the Office of the Vice Chancellor and Dean of their nomination for the winner of each award by the due date.

- Working with the IUPUC Faculty Senate Secretary to have the names of this year’s winners posted on the IUPUC Awards Page immediately after the Spring Awards Ceremony.
